

Topics in Macroeconomic Analysis: Stabilization and Development

Professor: Persefoni Tsaliki, Ph.D.

Office Hours: Tuesday and Wednesday, Office 201

Tel.: 2310 – 997156, e-mail: ptsaliki@econ.auth.gr

Code: 03YZ03

ECTS: 6

Type of Course: Compulsory

Teaching Hours per week: 4

Aim of the Course:

To introduce students special topics in macroeconomic analysis and policy that refer to theoretical and empirical issues related to stabilization and development topics.

Contents:

Introduction

Unemployment and Inflation

Economic Cycles and Crises

Keynesian Economics

The Crisis in 1970s and the Monetarist Answer

The Anemic Recovery of the 1990s and New-Neoclassical Economics

Stabilization and Development Policies

Reading List:

- Tsaliki P. and L. Tsoulfidis, Essays in Political Economy, Tziolas Publishing, Thessaloniki, 2013 (in Greek).
- Tsoulfidis L., Competing Schools of Economic Thought, Berlin: Springer, 2010