

Post Graduate Program: Economic and Regional Development Course: Growth and Development

Type of Course: Compulsory

Teaching Hours per week: 3

Professors: Persefoni Tsaliki, Ph.D., Evaggelia Desli, Ph.D.

Aim of the Course:

The theoretical and empirical presentation and analysis of issues and models related to economic growth and development.

Contents:

Introduction

Classical models of economic growth

Keynesian Growth Theory models

Neoclassical Solow Growth model

Economic Convergence Theory

Absolute and conditional convergence

Endogenous growth theory

Kaldor's model

Machinery and its impact on labour process

Human Capital

Sustainable Development

Reading List:

- Azariadis, C. 1993, Intemporal Macroeconomics, Cambridge Massachusetts: Blackwell Publishers
- Amstrong, H.W. (2002) "European Union Regional Policy: Reconciling the Convergence and Evaluation Evidence" in Regional Convergence in the European Union: Facts, Prospects, Policies, Juan R. Cuadrado-Roura and Marti Parellada Ed., New York: Springer.
- Barro, R.J. και X. Sala-i-Martin, 1999, Economic Growth, Cambridge Massachusetts: MIT Press
- Baumol, J.W., Blackman, S. and Wolf E., 1989, Productivity and American Leadership, Cambridge Massachusetts: MIT Press
- Carlin, W. και D. Sockice, 2005, Macroeconomics: Imperfections, Institutions and Policies, Oxford: Oxford University Press
- Foley K.D. and R.T. Michel, 1999, Growth and Distribution, Cambridge: Harvard University Press
- Jones, Charles I., 2002, Introduction to Economic Growth, New York: W. W. Norton
- International Encyclopedia of Social Sciences, MacMillan, 2nd ed, 2008 (IESS)

- Kaldor N., 1980, Essays on Economic Stability and Growth, New York: Holmes and Meier Publishers (K).
- Maniatis Th., Tsaliki P. and L. Tsoulfidis, Issues in Political Economy: The Greek Case Sakis Karagiorgas Foundation, Athens, 1999 (in Greek).
- Tsoulfidis L., Competing Schools of Economic Thought, Berlin: Springer, 2010